What personal data do we process?

Mixon AB processes the personal data that has been provided to us, such as name, address, job title, e-mail address, phone number, organization number/VAT-number, and/or other information that you have provided to us, or which is necessary for us in order to fulfil our commitments to you (for example correspondence between you and Mixon AB or technical information about how you have interacted with Mixon AB)

Why do we need your personal data?

Mixon AB processes personal data about you in order to fulfil our commitments to you as a customer/supplier/agent/partner etc. We may also need to process your data due to requirements of other laws and/or regulations, or in order to protect your interests.

In some cases, we may need your consent to perform the process. If that happens, you will get clear information about what you agree to.

How do we process your personal data and for how long do we keep it?

Your personal data is processed by authorized personnel at Mixon AB, and stored on servers in Sweden. Your personal data is only being handled by Mixon AB or by our data processors. Otherwise we will not disclose your personal data to other companies or authorities unless required to comply with legal obligations, regulation or authority decisions, or to protect our, or third party's, rights. The personal data is not stored longer than the purpose of the task, or based on requirements in law/regulations.

What are your rights?

You have the right to have a registry extract and to get your personal data corrected. You also have the right to delete your personal data in some cases. If you wish to use your rights, please contact us at info@mixon.se.
